“DUTCH DELIGHTS” COOKBOOK RE-RELEASED RECIPE SUBMISSIONS WELCOMED FOR UPCOMING SECOND EDITION

LITTLE CHUTE, WI (June 7, 2007) – “Dutch Delights”, a collection of recipes celebrating the Dutch heritage of Little Chute, has been a big hit in the Fox Valley and beyond. The cookbook is composed of over 200 recipes collected from residents of Little Chute and surrounding communities and was put together through the efforts of the Little Chute Historical Society. All proceeds from the sale of the cookbooks go to fund The Little Chute Windmill Project. Over 1100 books have been sold which has raised over $4,600 for the Windmill Project. “Dutch Delights” is available for sale at many Little Chute businesses and at the Little Chute Windmill office at 122 West Main Street in Little Chute. Copies can also be mailed upon request.

“Dutch Delights” has just been reprinted and copies are widely available. Recipe submissions are being welcomed to be included in an upcoming second edition of the cookbook. Submitted recipes should be Dutch in origin and include a name, contact information and a brief history or story about the recipe. Space is limited, but as many recipes as possible will be included. Recipe submissions and questions should be sent to:
